CAPE COD COMMUNITY COLLEGE
Hyannis, Massachusetts

Long before anyone thought of a Cape Cod Community College, students were hard at work in the classrooms we now use, for underneath the still shiny plaque over our main entrance are engraved the words "State Normal School," and on the cornerstone is the date "1897."

Until 1942, first as the Hyannis Normal School, then as the Hyannis State Teachers' College, our classrooms housed thousands of students, many of whom became teachers in our towns all over this part of the state. With the closing of the Teachers' College in 1942, the building next became the home of the Massachusetts Maritime Academy. For the next six years—until the Middies moved to Buzzards Bay in 1948—our campus had a decidedly nautical flavor. Between 1948 and 1961, a variety of enterprises were housed in our buildings which the town of Barnstable had purchased.

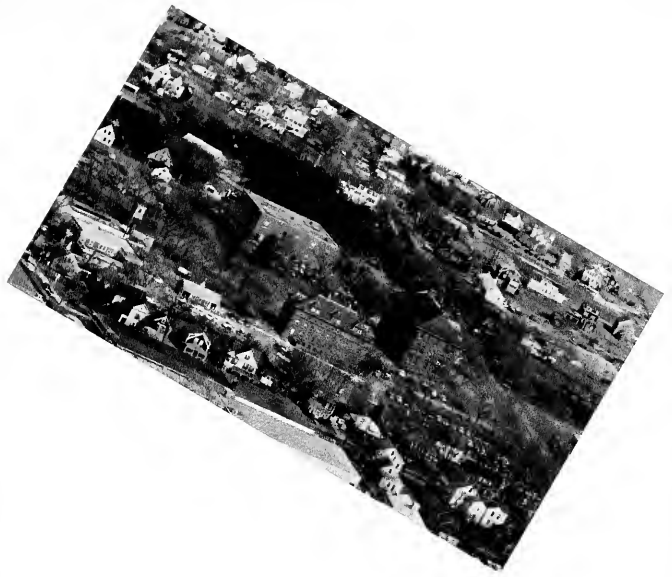

INTRODUCTION . . .

Among them were the Cape Cod Conservatory of Music, The Registry of Motor Vehicles, Civil Defense, The National Guard, and The Coast Guard Reserve.

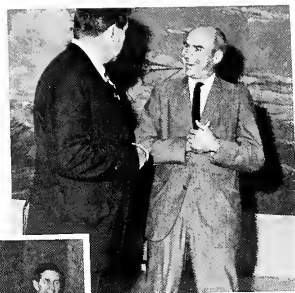

In the meantime, after many years of work—much of it by our own Senator Stone—The General Court, in 1958, set up the machinery for a statewide system of community colleges which ultimately resulted in the present school, one of a group of three authorized during the second year of the state program.

In October, 1960, almost a year before the first student arrived, Dr. Irving H. Bartlett arrived in Hyannis to begin the job of recruiting faculty and students and supervising renovation and reconstruction of the building. The following September Cape Cod Community College opened its doors to its first students, and began a new chapter in the rich educational history of the old buildings.

DEDICATION

Beginning in a far from luxurious office in the dormitory building, Dr. Irving H. Bartlett has built a college. What we are today is in no small measure an extension of this one man. Our physical plant, our faculty, our student body, and our spirit all reflect his intellectual gifts, his administrative ability, his sound judgment, and his good humor.

It is with profound appreciation that the editors dedicate the first FORESEER to Dr. Irving H. Bartlett.

THE DEANS

DEAN OF ADMINISTRATION

Our dean of administration is ex-railroad executive E. Carleton Nickerson. Bringing to the college a wealth of administrative experience from the world of business, Dean Nickerson, in addition to his administrative duties, is advisor for Business Terminal students and is a faculty member in Economics. Holder of the B.A. and M.B.A. degrees from Harvard University, Dean Nickerson continues to be active in business and civic as well as college affairs.

DEAN OF STUDENTS

Dean Elinor E. Hanna comes to Cape Cod Community College from an impressive list of positions in secondary and higher education. With B.S., M.A., and Ph.D. degrees from New York University, Dean Hanna is a faculty member in Psychology. Her firm but friendly guidance and her realistic appreciation of student problems are indeed an asset to the college.

DEAN OF MEN

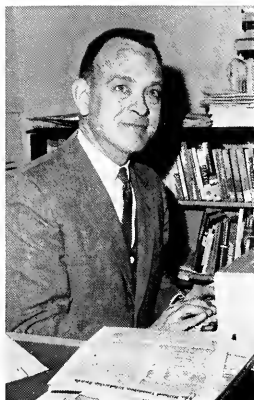

Dean W. Douglas Mitchell is a graduate of Hiram College and earned his M.A. and M.F.A. degrees at Western Reserve University. He was associated with Hiram College for many years. At Cape Cod Community College not only is he Dean of Men but also advisor to College Transfer students and faculty member in Art and Speech.

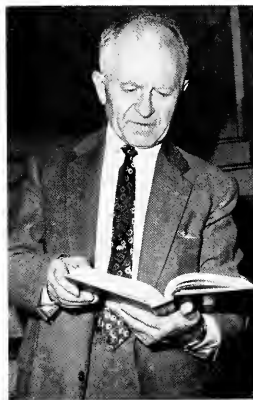

Cape Cod Community College students who are enthusiastic at prospects for the future recognize that a good faculty is essential to the goal of pre-eminence which is being set. We realize that our staff is first rate and look back with pleasure upon the experiences with the many good teachers we have encountered during our first two years at the College.

SENIORS

JULIETTE ANJOS

New Bedford, Massachusetts

Activities: Newman Club, Beacon Staff, Class Secretary, Kappas, Dean's List.

A good-natured and easy-going sort of a person, Julie can always be seen on top of a ladder, under a desk, or behind a Christmas tree, patiently and arduously working to make a dance or a Student Senate Office a success. Julie will surely have no trouble achieving her goal of entering the Foreign Service, especially with her ability to make the best kale soup Cape Cod has ever tasted.

RONALD C. ARMESON

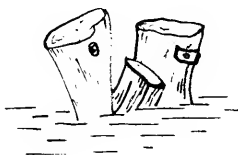

Dennisport, Massachusetts

Cowboy boots and a ten-gallon hat comprise Ron's favorite apparel. Well, maybe pilots from Arizona dress that way! Architecture, chemical or electrical engineering are his choices for a career supplemented only by enjoying football as a spectator. When are you going to retrieve your plane, Ron?

JUDITH ARSENAULT

South Dartmouth, Massachusetts

Activities: Vice President of Young Republicans Club, Kappas, Dean's List.

Judy captivates all by her staunch John Birch thoughts. The Young Republicans take a good deal of her devoted thoughts and Representative Keith certainly appreciated it. She and Mike constitute the right half of the school. But, perhaps we will meet our Gal Congresswoman in the Advise and Consent of 1984.

LeBARON ROY BAPTISTA

Wareham, Massachusetts

Activities: Intramural Bowling, Basketball, President of Romance Language Club, Phi Delta Psi.

Lee, a true Spanish lover, in more ways than one, can always be heard uttering "shucks" and "man, you're all wrong," and seen putt-putting Osterville bound in his own "Company Car." With his keen eye for women and his conscientious ways, Lee will certainly reach his goal of becoming a good husband, and working in the field of what else? . . . Spanish!

RICHARD C. BARRETT, JR.

Nantucket, Massachusetts

Activities: Photography Editor of FORESEER.

Dick, our photo hound, and photography editor of the yearbook, is a rosy example of Nantucket. When he becomes a teacher, we know he will be loved by all his students for saying, "We'll do it first thing in the morning!"

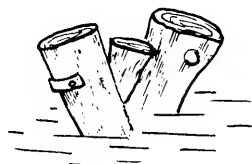

JOHN BENNETT

Pocasset, Massachusetts

Activities: Intramural Football, Basketball, Bowling, Mu Upsilon Gamma, Co-Chairman of Social Committee, Business Manager of FORESEER, Chess Club, Hockey Captain.

A future big businessman, John will always be remembered for his campaign promises of obtaining the new Glen Miller Band for our all-college dance. Clam Flat John has a variety of interests ranging from putting on Legion Dances to playing hockey. Look us up when you make Wall Street, Huh?

PHILIP BRENNAN

Cummaquid, Massachusetts

Activities: Phi Delta Psi.

Automobiles, deer tracking, and the Barnstable Fire Department never keep Phil from his brain-breaking experience at the 4 C's. One never knows, maybe calculus may make him forget about his two-legged dear.

JOANNE THERESA BUCKLEY

Centerville, Massachusetts

Activities: Treasurer of Student Senate, Chairman of Social Committee, Beacon Staff, Secretary of Romance Language Club, Copy Staff of FORESEER, Constitution Committee.

The better half of the gruesome twosome is Jo Buck. This "Little Town Flirt" has a favorite expression which is "Ain't doin' nothin'" but just watch her whiz by! Cooking grilled cheese sandwiches, blushing, teasing her newly painted hair, in and out of the Flower, and selling slaves as well as photographing three cold gals in a V. W. on Nauset Beach, Jo, the candid corner gal, has contributed much leadership and many laughs to our college campus.

DORIS MARIE CAHOON

West Yarmouth, Massachusetts

"Dody," whose favorite pastime is bridge-playing in the Commons, can't be forgotten for her second year grand entrance to 4 C's adorned in her new auburn hair. Being a twin has its advantages, just as long as the "other half" stays away from Newport, huh, Doris?

GEORGE CAREY

Hyannis, Massachusetts

Activities: Debate Club, Dramatics Club, Beacon Staff, Dean's List.

By means of George's facility with forensics he continually maintains to rack up one argument after another. His credits go to Dr. Schmidt because he has never yet won a battle of words with him. The Latin Lover haunts the Colonial Lounge as well as the Commons. But, how can any one of us forget how well George conducts a class, even if it is from the back of the room!

MARGARET CARTER

New Bedford, Massachusetts

Activities: President of Newman Club.

Peggy's special talents such as Math keep her tutoring El Presidente in the Senate Office. The only thing that brings her out is finals. Perhaps those ice skates will come in handy in the future, Peg!

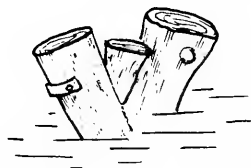

MARILYN CATON

North Harwich, Massachusetts

Activities: Dean's List.

Marilyn though employed part time by the Stop and Shop seems to manage somehow by her pleasant manner to make numerous friends, and by studying has attained scholastic merit by becoming a member of the Dean's List. She will always be considered a success because of her secretarial abilities, whizzy attitude, and cute appearance.

ROGER CHASE

New Bedford, Massachusetts

Activities: Treasurer of Student Senate, Secretary of Phi Delta Psi, Newman Club.

Summer reading programs and three o'clock classes on Fridays may provoke Rog but, Mr. Fisk's clothes and Dr. Hanna's advice manage to keep him going until exams. To speak the English language properly is "Cawky's" ambition but, one day we will look for him in Washington balancing the national budget for Teddy.

CYNTHIA A. CHASEY

Hyannis, Massachusetts

Activities: Beacon Staff, FORESEER Typist.

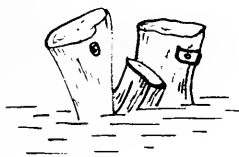

Expressions like "Oh, Rats" may not be applied to school but, certainly to all sports which Cindy hates with a purple passion. But happiness is her guiding star and her future boss will adore this lively bundle of secretarial abilities.

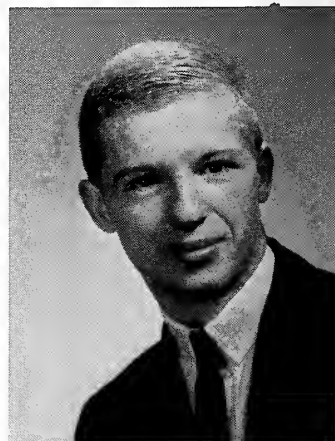

DONALD CLEMENT

Hyannis, Massachusetts

Activities: Mu Upsilon Gamma, Intramural Sports, FORESEER Copy Staff, Varsity Basketball, Assistant Manager of Hockey Team.

Our lively manager is still managing to escape frostbite after those cold hockey games! Even though he has a full-time hobby of getting himself into trouble and saying the right things at the wrong times, we may someday see the front-pages splashed with the deeds of Clem, The Humanitarian.

SUZANNE KATHLEEN CLOWRY

Dennis, Massachusetts

Activities: Copy Editor of FORESEER, Beacon Staff, Kappas, Treasurer of Young Republicans Club, Dean's List, Dramatics Club, Queen's Court of Spring Weekend.

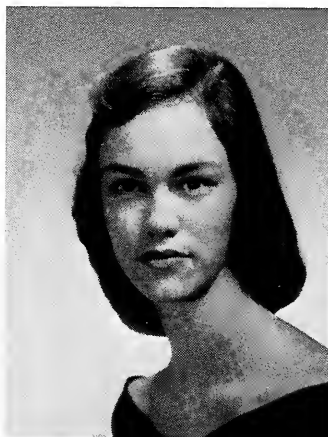

Our Little Alice in Wonderland often illustrates to us her great command of the English language with such memorable words as "what-not" and "consequently" during one of her many classroom orations. Her pert ways and somewhat impish appearance all add up to make her journey to the top . . . of the Eiffel Tower, perhaps, and of a certain six-foot Frosh an ultimate victory.

MARGARET GWYNN CONVERSE

Hyannis, Massachusetts

Activities: Dean's List.

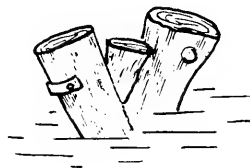

The Commons is occupied by many and Peg is one of them, sitting at the same table playing—what else—bridge. Although twenty-five hours of Peg's time is allotted to cards, there is still that one hour dedicated to studying which enabled her to enjoy the Dean's List spread!

CANDACE DAHL

Plymouth, Massachusetts

Candy's eyes have been the attraction of many male members of the class, and the envy of most female members. Much of her hobby time is taken up with horseback riding and skiing. However, the rest of her time seems to be spent waiting for the ride back to Plymouth after a full day. How about it, Candy?

WILLIAM M. DANIELS

Chatham, Massachusetts

Activities: Audio-Visual Club.

Seeing that female psychology is Bill's favorite subject, no wonder he wants to be a gigolo. Also, he can be found—other than parking in the lot—fishing off Chatham in deep waters for lobsters and scallops and maybe even a few stray mermaids that he can counsel. We'll look for our Bill as the Captain of the next lost dragger—Why? Too many girls spoil the steering.

JOHN J. DILLON, JR.

West Barnstable, Massachusetts

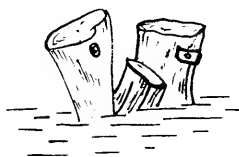

Activities: Phi Delta Psi, Varsity Hockey, Newman Club.

With stick and puck Jeff managed to acquire a banged up chin at the Rink last year. However, that didn't stop him. He dove head first this season to help out our team to gain several needed wins. If you're going to join the Bruins, please get a good car—So holler and we'll head for Boston to see you meet the Rangers single-handed!

MARTHA MARGARET DUMICAN

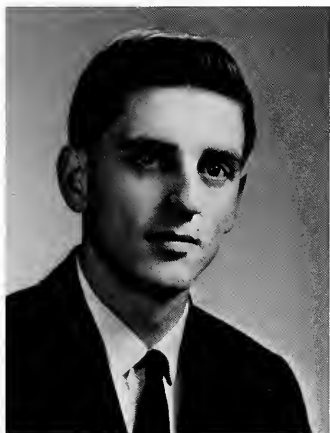

South Yarmouth, Massachusetts

Activities: Student Senate Secretary, Representative, Beacon Staff, President of Kappas, Freshman Initiation Week Chairman, Secretary of Young Republicans Club, Intramural Sports, Secretary-Treasurer of Dean's List Executive Board.

Every school has its leaders, and Martha has been one of our most willing and capable leaders at the 4 C's. She has contributed much to its present and future well-being. With these qualities, "Ma" is bound to make a jolly good teacher—or another Dear Abby, anyway. Look at all the money you'll make and your picture in the paper, too!

JAMES OLIVER ELDREDGE

Chatham, Massachusetts

Activities: Phi Delta Psi.

"Stretch" some time soon will model himself after Mr. Weaner and have one of the many motels on the Cape—Where will it be? Don't guess—Nauset Beach, on floats! It's good that this class doesn't meet at 8 a.m. or maybe Jim would turn out to be another Wilt the Stilt.

VIRGINIA L. ELLIS

Buzzards Bay, Massachusetts

Activities: Office Worker.

Painting and reading make Ginny an all around girl. Her favorite teacher is Mr. Mitchell because his classes never are dull even if they do come at eight in the morning. Perhaps we may see her in the future in an informal office painting a rosy portrait of her boss.

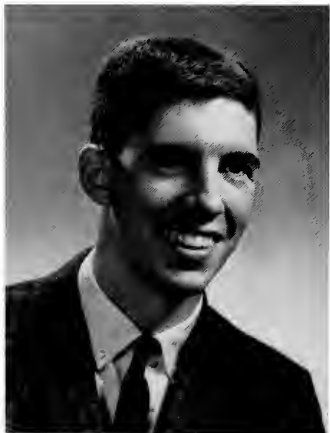

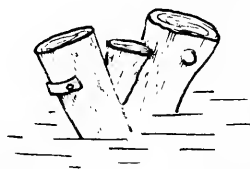

BARRY M. FOSS

Dennisport, Massachusetts

Activities: Mu Upsilon Gamma, Intramural Basketball, Football, Bowling, Student Senate, Campus and Building Committee.

Tall, neat, and handsome, Bear will always be remembered for his quiet mannerisms, his "That's Close," and his 4.0 in music. With a possible future singing and swinging—golf clubs and a Forest Ranger, Bear rates high in the respect of his class mates. Step on the black and white bug in the parking lot, somebody, will ya'?

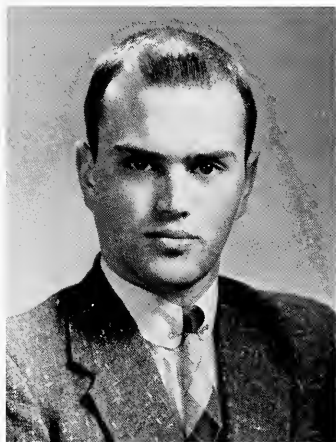

JAMES L. GAGNON

Middleboro, Massachusetts

Activities: Phi Delta Psi, Student Senate, Disciplinary Committee, Junior Delegate to Rotary Club.

Along with his pinmate Jim wandered the halls wondering just how to keep the Student Commons clean. Breakwater Cottages kept him busy with football on the beach at 32°. Anyone for Social Prob? Just ask James—he'll see to it! Seriously, Jim has seen that a scholarship be given to a student from Phi Delta Psi and will engage perhaps as a great Volkswagen racer!

THOMAS GAYOSKI

Rochester, Massachusetts

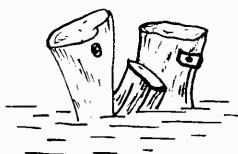

Activities: Intramural Basketball, Student Senate, Mu Upsilon Gamma.

Tom is a history fiend who will never be forgotten for his B's in General Biology while the rest of us flunked! As he says, "Well, that's the breaks, Man." But, Tom always finds time for hockey, bowling and a friendly smile to all his classmates.

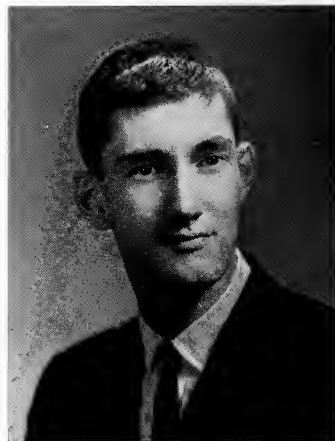

LEONARD C. GOBEIL

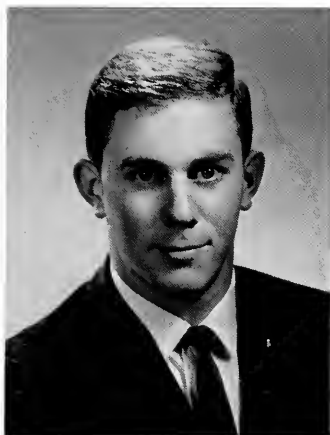

New Bedford, Massachusetts

Activities: Intramural Basketball, Beacon Sports Writer, Phi Delta Psi.

Shaggy hair, Frat Pin, and Mid-Cape Jaycees constitute the major elements of Lenny's universe. Who else could manage to run dances, bake cakes, and play basketball all at once? Perhaps finals are bad, but chin up, Len, you're all right the world's all wrong! Keep the birthday cakes and cookies coming, Mr. Gobile!

STETSON R. HALL

Osterville, Massachusetts

Activities: Phi Delta Psi.

Running through the halls for classes keeps Stets in fit shape for the 100 yard dash which he won last year. Even though the stairs are too much for him, Chemistry drags him to the third floor three days a week. Who knows—perhaps some day Stets will be the world's one and only blushing chemist!

KATHLEEN HOPE HASLAM

Cataumet, Massachusetts

Activities: Dean's List, FORESEER Typist.

"Dr. Kildare's on; it's snack time; what's for dessert?" These expressions give you an idea of what Kathy has on her mind—Richard Chamberlaine between two slices of bread! Actually, though, Kathy, a Dean's List student, has done other things during the past two years, and we all think she's swell.

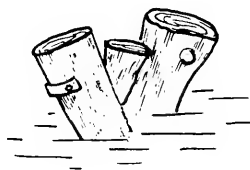

FREDERIC JON HEMMILA

Yarmouthport, Massachusetts

Activities: President of Sophomore Class, Board of Directors of Phi Delta Psi.

We were so fortunate in having Fred, a mechanic, as an active member of our class. He not only repaired cars, but did a fine repair job as president of our class. Soon all the loose coil wires were connected, and our class became a whole solid, functioning motor. Thanks, Fred!

CARL F. HILL

Cotuit, Massachusetts

Activities: Mu Upsilon Gamma.

Carl, sometimes referred to as "Moo" by his closer amigos, is playing the chef role for a while until Sally learns to cook but, he still maintains that $40 a week as a garbage collector is all he needs. Needless to say, we know Carl will never be "Very, very, un-hoppy!"

LORRAINE R. HOLT

East Sandwich, Massachusetts

Activities: Dean's List.

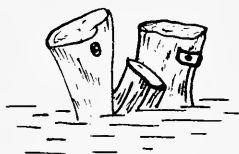

Making a hard job out of an easy one certainly isn't true about our 4.0 mother of five. Perhaps it's those cold classrooms that bring out the genius. Certainly, Lorraine will never slip our minds because of her kind ways, gracious smile, and academic talents.

JOHN B. HOPKINS

South Yarmouth, Massachusetts

Activities: Debate Club.

John, we predict, will continue to inspire awe in the Berkshire Students by his command of the language as well as the thirty odd girls in his art classes in Brewster by his knowledge of art. Maybe if you take Spanish a fourth time it will be better! Anyhow our best to a great guy even if he was for Stuart Hughes. See your work in the Greenwich Gallery.

DANIEL T. IRELAND

Orleans, Massachusetts

Activities: Mu Upsilon Gamma.

Dad's service station really swings way out with the keen sound of Dan's skins! Do you really pack them off to Greenfield too? Though the 4C's is as tough as they come to Big Dan, studying doesn't seem to bother our second Gene Krupa.

BARRY HUNT JOHNSON

Cateumet, Massachusetts

Activities: Vice President of Sophomore Class, Intramural Football, Basketball, Bowling League Treasurer, Christmas Cane Committee, Spring Weekend Committee, Mardi Gras Dance Committee, Mu Upsilon Gamma.

Good looks, a personality highlighted by a refreshing gift of gab, a willing helping hand, an interest in people and places, and a conscientious air easily give Barry his ticket into the ministry. Just how lucky could one congregation be to have our own Mr. Finesse as their guiding light? Love to hear one of those sermons!

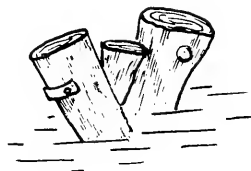

MAUREEN L. JONES

Marstons Mills, Massachusetts

Activities: Dean's List.

Our first year Mo caused all to stop with her unusual combination of beauty and brains. What made you scream in Business Law, Maureen? Could it be an itty, bitsy bug? A great typist and good sport, Mo has the facility to make friends and keep them. See you as an Executive Secretary for General Motors next!

NANCY E. KURGAN

New Bedford, Massachusetts

Activities: Copy Editor of Beacon, Library Worker.

"Kurgie" is a little bundle of energy, who is constantly chattering. If you want information of any sort, just ask "Kurgie." She knows the inside ropes, and no doubt will have the info. for you. Everyone in Nancy's book is either a character or a riot, but she's added color and character to the 4 C's herself!

CAROL-ANN LAMSON

Harwich, Massachusetts

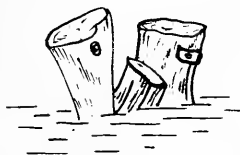

Activities: Dean's List.

Horseback riding and stamp collecting consume most of Carol's outside hours, but not enough to keep her from her A's in Biology and Chemistry. Who knows—the next cure for an ingrown toenail may be developed by our own aspiring research chemist.

BARBARA ANN LAWRENCE

Acushnet, Massachusetts

Activities: Treasurer of Sophomore Class, Secretary of Newman Club, Student Senate, Kappas.

C.C.C.C. was very happy and proud to hear that one of its students has reached the threshold of fame and beauty—Miss Acushnet of 1962—right, Barb? Special appearances are time consuming, but Barb still finds many hours of hard work to devote to the class as its spend-thrift Treasurer.

JUDITH S. LINNELL

West Harwich, Massachusetts

Judy's ambition is to become a Medical Secretary. Who will she work for—an obstetrician? She has mixed feelings about college but certainly not about the new Mr. Linnell. Good luck in the future in your every endeavor, be it cooking, sewing, or keeping house.

KAREN E. LONGHI

Plymouth, Massachusetts

Activities: Newman Club, Intramural Sports, Kappas, Bowling League.

Agility on the basketball court, coordination around the ping-pong table, and a bright and cheerful face make up our "Hun-u" from Pilgrim town. Because Karen possesses the ability to learn new things without too much trouble, she will undoubtedly become a tremendous addition to the teaching profession.

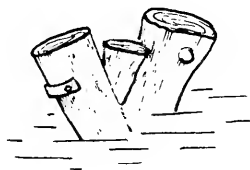

ROGER J. LYONNAIS

New Bedford, Massachusetts

Activities: President of Student Senate, Phi Delta Psi, Dramatics Club, Newman Club.

Rog, our very own el presidente, is an unusual combination of seriousness of purpose and fun-filled activity. A future Chevalier and Astaire, a party isn't a party without his good humor and good looks. All these qualities combined will, no doubt, gain him the Teacher of the Year Award, where we may still hear him muttering, "You're out of order, Mr. . . .!"

DANIEL MARRAMA

Dorchester, Massachusetts

Activities: Mu Upsilon Gamma.

Sometimes known as Mannie Darama, "Dino" breezes by in his big blue bomb off to the Shell Station. Other than dating school teachers, he manages to run the book store and hustle a few frosh. But, never fear for Manny is here to provide a few extemporaneous speeches for Mr. Mitchell direct from the Hyannis Inn.

ESTHER M. MASIN

Harwich, Massachusetts

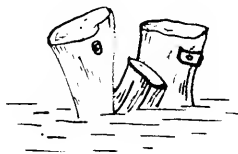

Activities: Dean's List.

The 4 C's certainly creates great secretaries and housewives. Among them is pert Esther. But Sunday School Teaching and Edson's still doesn't keep her off the Dean's List. Esther we know will become as famous as Anne Southern as Susie, the Private Secretary, some day.

JOHN D. MEDEIROS

Santuit, Massachusetts

Activities: Intramural Basketball, Bowling, Baseball, Vice-Chairman of Phi Delta Psi, Chairman of Phi Delta Psi Dance Committee.

A whiz on the dance floor and on the baseball field, Jackie is also a man who enjoys working with figures. He has found school to be a great challenge and an interesting experience, especially since he has to go for two straight hours in lab without a cigarette break. Why not try chewing gum, chum?

CAROLYN JEAN MISKELLY

Plymouth, Massachusetts

Activities: Student Senate.

Lyn is a quiet sort most of the time, but don't let her teasing personality start along its way. There's no telling what might happen then. She's been a member of the Student Senate, and enjoys tennis. By the way, do they play tennis in Plymouth?

ANNE MARIE MITCHELL

West Falmouth, Massachusetts

Activities: Dean's List, Library Worker.

We could start out by saying "Sing along with Mitch," but, Anne would no doubt only retort with "I don't care," or "Oh, well!" She uses these expressions constantly. Anne is a hard working girl whose ambition is to marry a doctor. She's almost there too!

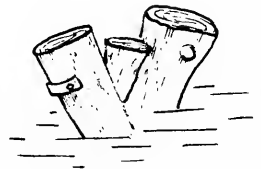

CAROL ANNE NEVILLE

New Bedford, Massachusetts

Activities: Kappas, Beacon Business Manager.

Basketball and the Beacon take up much of Carol's time. Maybe Mr. Harrel has something to do with your favorite subject, Carol? Anyway pity the poor children who get a "Slave" for an elementary teacher.

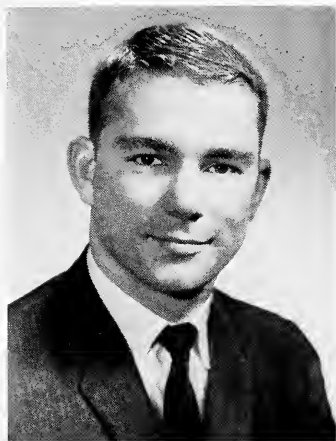

FLORENCE OLIVERIA

New Bedford, Massachusetts

Activities: Newman Club, Beacon Typist.

Flo, a New Bedfordite, wants to be a teacher. She'd be a versatile one, for not only is she a mathematics and typing whiz, she's also amiable and sportsminded. Flo's favorite sports are bowling, tennis, and basketball. We hear she has quite a bowling arm. She says, "Not really!"

PAUL PAROLSKI

Adelphi, Maryland

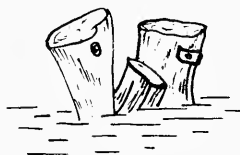

Activities: Vice President of Newman Club, Student Senate, Varsity Basketball, Mu Upsilon Gamma, Chairman of Student Athletics Council.

If anyone sees a cash box with legs, it is sure to be Paul tending those grinders. Resort Management has led Paul to his ambition as a master of the culinary art. But, be careful, girls! Remember if you can't find him, he's probably only scoring a few points for the 4 C's, with his tricky footwork at the Armory.

PHILIP H. PERKINS

Bass River, Massachusetts

Activities: Phi Delta Psi, Chemistry Lab Assistant, Dean's List.

For his A in chem Phil was given the opportunity to become Dr. Page's assistant in Lab. But that and studying don't seem to keep Shortie from attending and throwing Xmas blasts. His ambition to enjoy life to its fullest in a warmer climate may take our Twister Pro to Florida as head of a Power Squadron. We'll be seeing you and remembering your "Who's got a match for my tabac?"

ERIC M. PETERSON

Falmouth, Massachusetts

Equipped with only a Ford Bus, a metal box, and the greatest collection of hats one could own—Eric came for this year to make an indentation on all of us. Never ceasing to add his approach or discussion he will always remain deep in our memories for the contents of his banged-up, gray box. What's in there anyway, Eric? Mom's head?

GLENDIA PIRES

Marion, Massachusetts

Activities: Beacon Staff, Office Worker.

Penny's likes are many—the slop, basketball, and secretarial works. Penny's appreciation of school functions is much welcomed and her agile ability in basketball is much needed. Yes, Penny, we certainly agree with you!

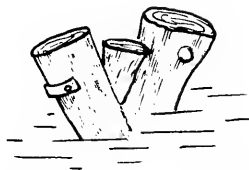

WILLIAM A. PRICE, JR.

Plympton, Massachusetts

Activities: Intramural Basketball, Phi Delta Psi.

Boyd's Bad Boy may drive a cool gray Merc but he still has time to heckle all including a certain resident of New Bedford. Why do homework if your house has a T.V. set! This hot ticket with his blonde hair which is continually being messed will someday give us a wave from the floor of the Garden in New York—as a Basketball Star! Don't forget to wave now!

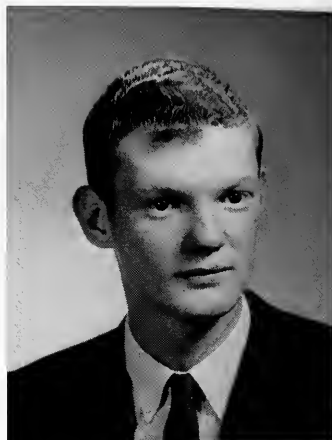

DAVID RICHARDSON

Plymouth, Massachusetts

Activities: Phi Delta Psi.

Red hair, freckles, and a Scottish pilgrim to boot is Dave. But there is one element that can not be overlooked which is "I've got something for you baby"—Wonder who?

ELSIE RODRIGUES

New Bedford, Massachusetts

Activities: Student Senate Secretary, Dean's List, Beacon Staff, Newman Club.

Elsie, the mighty little history scholar, has a perpetual smile that especially radiates when the sun is shining. A good worker who is seen at her best in her raggy dungarees and rolled up hair, she seems to prefer the U. of Mass. campus, her native New Bedford, and even Portugal.

DOROTHY ROGERS

New Bedford, Massachusetts

Activities: Dean's List.

Homemaker Dorothy Rogers can be found hiding behind a handful of cards in the Commons when she's not busy looking after Mr. Rogers. Now and then she emerges to utter a cry of "You're vulnerable!"

TERRY ANN ROGERS

Osterville, Massachusetts

Activities: Vice President of Kappas, Dean's List, Student Senate, FORESEER Staff, Intramural Sports, Dance Committee, Newman Club.

Terry, the lovely blonde, will never cease to amaze all by her talents with the hoop and paddle. A popular figure and a many time title winner at the 4 C's, Willie is sometimes known as Princess Straight Arrow. A sand dune rider and part of a gruesome twosome, Terry will never forget the tear-jerking orations of her own Greek Hero.

GAIL SCHULE

East Dennis, Massachusetts

Activities: Beacon Typing Staff.

Gail is one of the quieter members of the class. In one class she is known as Miss Schooble. She is planning a career as a teacher and is now actively teaching a Sunday School class in preparation. Gail only complains when lazy students don't park in the parking lot. Otherwise she's happy!

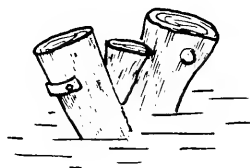

JOSEPH SILVA

New Bedford, Massachusetts

Activities: Phi Delta Psi, Beacon Photographer, Newman Club, Student Senate.

Certainly Joe doesn't go in for Mr. Fisk's colorful clothes but he does blow that hot horn. His red Corvair may carry him far—even to becoming a teacher. Or perhaps, Joe will be like his famous Uncle—kissing babies and shaking hands. Look for our next Republican Senator from New Bedford!

DANIEL SMALL

North Falmouth, Massachusetts

Activities: Dean's List, Executive Board.

Dan has been quietly doing a fine job here at C.C.C.C. He spends a good deal of his time at the library, and this is time well spent, for he is an active member of the Dean's List Executive Committee. His ambition is to be a businessman, and with his diligence, we know he will succeed!

JAMES K. SMITH

Darmouth, Massachusetts

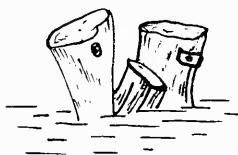

Activities: Intramural Football, Varsity Basketball and Baseball, Baldwin Club, Phi Delta Psi.

Whether referred to as "Maharu," "Smitty," or "Molecule," Jimmy will always be remembered for his illustrious "Mooning" accompanied by his dump men compadres. "Unbelievable!" is Jimmy's most unforgettable expression. Although he is "King Clown" at the 4 C's, we are very fortunate to have such an intelligent boy as Jim on our graduation list. Dean's List this semester, Smitty?

ALFRED J. SOUZA

Nantucket, Massachusetts

Activities: Phi Delta Psi, Director.

Al, a man of Steele, is striving toward his goal in becoming a teacher. His main interests among many are psychology, economics, and summit meetings at the Breakwater with the elders. His broadmindedness and friendliness makes him one of the nicest students at school with whom to talk.

MICHELLE LEE STEELE

Provincetown, Massachusetts

Activities: Chairman of Housing Committee, Chairman of Executive Board of Dean's List, Student Senate, Queen of Spring Weekend.

"Housing" is Micki's specialty, especially at Breakwater Cottages! Her pleasing personality, orderly mind, and conscientiousness of nature, have made her an asset to the Student Senate Housing Committee, and Dean's List students. We'll remember her always, just as "Micki"—from Provincetown, of course!

PAMELA MATTESON STEEN

Bridgewater, Massachusetts

Activities: Kappas, Dean's List, Editor-in-Chief of FORESEER, Student Senate.

Dark hair and a pert smile make Pam a joy to her Maritime Academy Beau. Too bad those cruises last so long. Mr. Hartley will never forget her visits to B-6 and numerous questions. Remember those deadlines and keep that newly acquired appointment book close at hand!

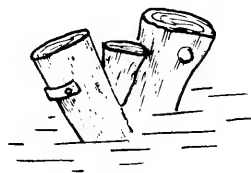

JOHN FREDERICK STOREY

Chatham, Massachusetts

Activities: Phi Delta Psi.

Though to Big John the 4 C's is a great place to visit, he never wants to live there, the Psi keeps him occupied initiating the new Frosh. Maybe his accounting isn't too good but heaven help his math teacher. We'll look for you in the future at your new greasy spoon called "Big Bad John's Humble Abode!"

CASSIUS W. TANDY

Bass River, Massachusetts

Activities: Student Senate, Senate Disciplinary Committee, Mu Upsilon Gamma, Intramural Basketball and Football.

"Cash," our contribution to the Benevolent Society of South Yarmouth Corner Standing, never ceases to produce comments. Bongos, kissing, and football are among his hobbies while pursuing his ambition to finish here and wear the ring—What ring? Just ask him.

ARLENE BARBARA TESER

New Bedford, Massachusetts

Activities: Kappas, Dean's List.

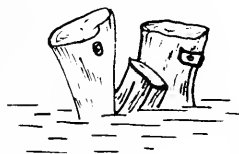

A deep and mysterious voice, not heard too often, and a wrinkled-up nose, is a fairly accurate description of our little Miss Tes. Why are you always early for bio lab, Tes? Success will follow our great gal complete with Stonehill's Frat. Pin and extensive knowledge!

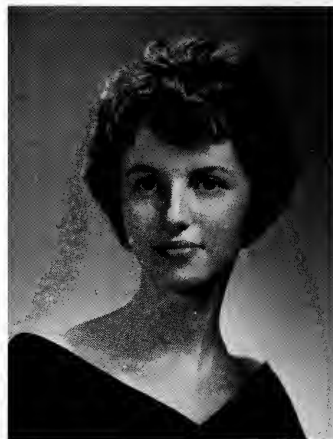

ARLEEN M. TETRAULT

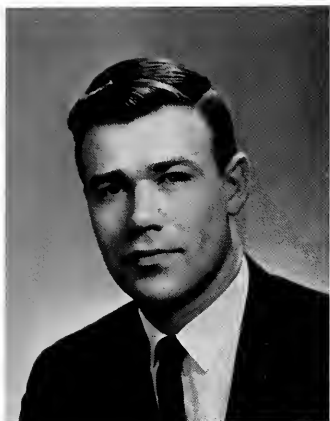

Acushnet, Massachusetts

Activities: Dean's List, Beacon Staff, Copy Staff of FORESEER, Corresponding Secretary of Young Republicans Club.

In Arleen we are able to foresee the future "Mamie Eisenhower" as the Republicans will never obtain a more devoted follower. Many of her waking hours are spent studying, which is illustrated by her attainment of Dean's List. Keep up the good work and we'll see you as secretary to our own Mr. Donham.

ROBERT TORRANCE

Plymouth, Massachusetts

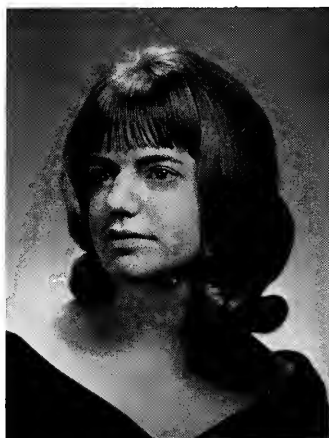

From the piano in the Commons comes the way out sound of "Take Five" by Bob Bruebeck. Plymouth's only known original Cape Codder will always be remembered for his concerted efforts in trying to pass. Bob we know will be a great success as a door-to-door salesman for Avon Products—Sorry no picture on the fishing boat, Bob!

MARION VAN DUZER

Cummaquid, Massachusetts

Activities: Kappas, Art Editor of FORESEER, Beacon Art Staff, Prom Decorating Committee, Freshman Dance Committee.

Just look for long blond tresses and black tights and that's our Marion. Making posters for all affairs is her special talent along with her four-stringed guitar and her sailfish. To be a folk singer, build sand castles, and live happily ever after riding elevators are her ambitions. Keep drawing those pilings, kid, and we'll look for your one woman show at the Guggenheim Museum.

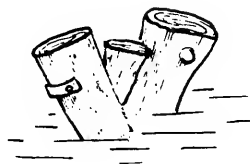

DONALD J. WATTERS, JR.

Reading, Massachusetts

Activities: Phi Delta Psi, Varsity Hockey.

Tall, dark and worried, Don will very seldom if ever forget those late Board scores—maybe he will go to Suntan U. But, how about a great V. P. candidate—who knows, perhaps Don can become interested in a political future? Anyway, don't join Boyd's Bad Boys—they'll only lead you astray. Look us up in Florida, kid!

VIRGINIA MARGARET WHITE

Whitman, Massachusetts

Activities: FORESEER Typist, Dean's List.

GINNY's pet peeve is eight o'clock classes, and we're all with her there! Ordinarily, though, she's quiet, very quiet, and very seldom is peeved at anything. She claims that one of her talents is procrastination. That's a talent? Keep this in mind, though, you wouldn't be reading this volume if it weren't for Ginny's diligent efforts as one of its typists.

MICHAEL S. WILLIAMS

Falmouth, Massachusetts

Activities: President of Young Republicans Club, Debate Club, Dean's List.

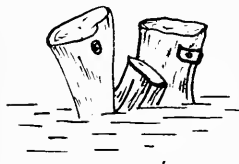

The Colonial Lounge, "Cheaper By The Dozen," and Art's Super Market may keep Mike busy delivering wines and liquors, but not so much as to allow him to play bartender and "Egghead." But, what about Dr. Bartlett, Mike? Falmouth could never have contributed a better seven no-trump to our class.

JOSEPH ZIMMERMAN

New Bedford, Massachusetts

Activities: Dean's List, Literary Editor of Beacon, Phi Delta Psi, Vice President of Romance Language Club, President of Baldwin Club.

"Shalom" and away we go to stamp out those ambiguous questions on exams. Joe always wears his big grin and a ymaka. To our own aspiring Rabbi, good wishes to a concert pianist and scholar. Brandeis next year, Boobie?

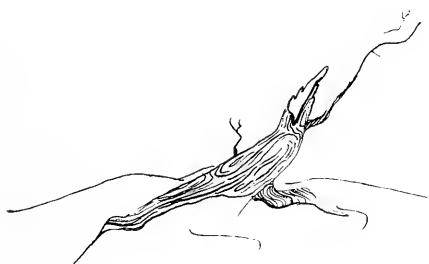

PAUL DENNIS ZINKUS

Dennisport, Massachusetts

Activities: Phi Delta Psi.

Really, Zink, as his fan club calls him, must love school because his pet peeve is having only two classes on Tuesdays. Nothing could keep him from taking Waldo, his pet Frosh pledge, out duck hunting in the dead of winter. Someday we'll awake to see Zink owning his very own casino. Any "I owe you's," Paul?

CONFUSION!

Orderly confusion, yes; but confusion most certainly! How else can one describe those first few days? But things DID settle down to a routine, and work began in earnest in a very short time. Of course we didn't mind things like having to sit on the floor at director's hour because the chairs hadn't arrived yet—it was part of the excitement of being first. There were other rewards for being first too, for the activities we initiated and the clubs we formed would be the ones that would begin to shape the traditions of a college.

We were quick to organize, electing John Dalton as our first president, Ric Lippard as vice president, Martha Dumican as secretary, and Joanne Buckley as treasurer. Activities such as Winter Frolic followed, as did clubs and organizations centering around our special interests both social and academic. The Kappas came into being as did Phi Delta Psi and the MUGS. The Audio Visual Club and sports activities made their appearance as did the Student Senate and the Beacon.

First semester finals thinned our ranks but didn't dampen our enthusiasm. Spring was in the air, and with it Mardi Gras and Spring Weekend followed by beach parties and barbecues. Then there were those examinations again . . . and, of course, summer on Cape Cod during which to recuperate.

Our second year brought with it a doubled student body and the distinction of being upperclassmen. No longer were we the ONLY class, we had traditions to pass on and a class to pass them to. Freshman Week and beanies, registration confusion, club initiations, new faces on the faculty and in the student body were all part of the first month back. Student Senate had things well under control, however, under the able leadership of Roger Lyonnaise, president; Ed Sullivan, vice president; Sally Polchlopek, secretary; and Roger Chase, treasurer. And soon we elected class officers: Fred Hemmilla, president; Barry Johnson, vice president; Juliette Anjos, secretary; and Barbara Lawrence, treasurer. New activities appeared such as Debating, Chess Club, Modern Dance Club and the Young Republicans. Parties abounded culminating in the Winter Wonderland just before Christmas.

Frantic work by the FORESEER staff promised a yearbook, though the editors themselves were often not so sure. EXAMINATIONS and a few farewells and the last semester began. Life gets more and more hectic every day . . . caps and gowns . . . senior pictures . . . dances . . . commencement anyone? What happened to those two years? . . .

CONFUSION!

Only her hairdresser knows for sure.

So this is where it all takes place!

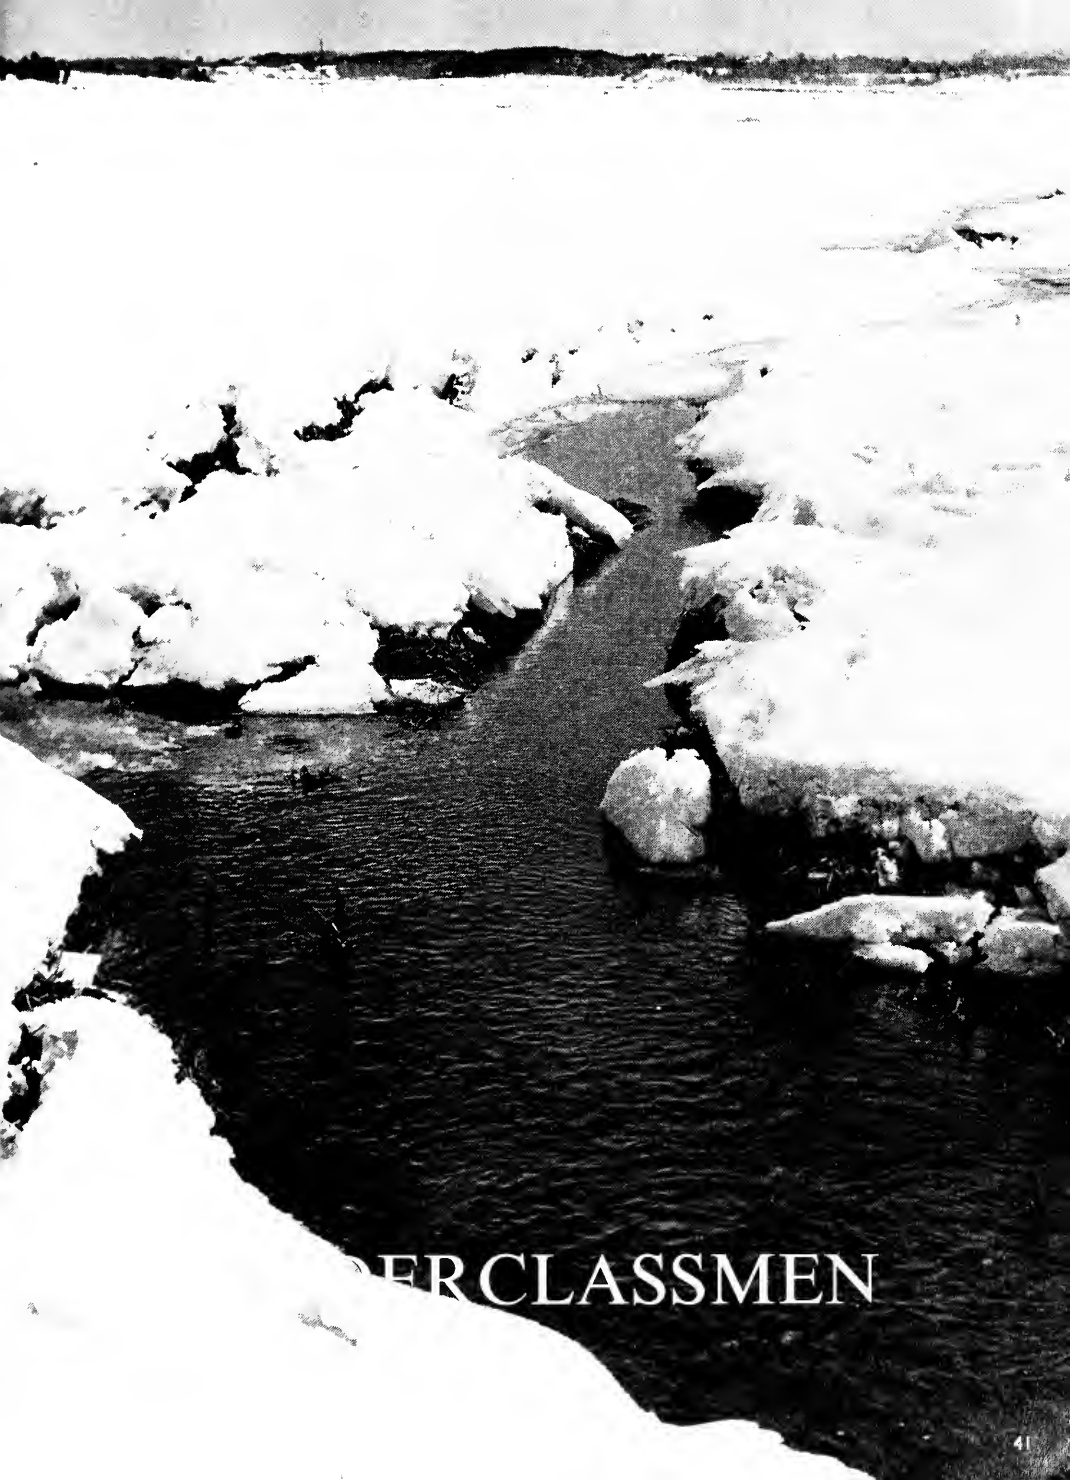

I'd sooner Lipton.

Our group had 49% fewer cavities.

There are no "Butts" about it!

ORGANIZATIONS

STUDENT SENATE

Cape Cod Community College maintains a governing body, "of the people, by the people, and for the people." Its membership consists of representatives from the various freshman and sophomore counseling groups. The aims of the Senate are: to promote the general welfare at the college; to assist in forming policy for the student activities program; to serve as a medium of communication between the student body and the faculty; to provide a forum for student expression; to assist in providing orderly direction of college activities; and to work with the community.

The Senate functions primarily through its committees which are composed of volunteers from the student body and Senate members. For example, the Constitution committee considers any changes in the Constitution or by-laws which keep these documents timely and practical; the Housing committee establishes rules and regulations for all boarding students in Hyannis; the Building and Campus committee sees that the lounge is kept up and the Senate office furnished; the Judicial committee penalizes all students involved in disciplinary actions; and the Graduation committee plans functions for senior week, orders class rings and distributes caps and gowns.

A spring weekend last May enabled the Senate to assemble for the year and to present a well planned and perfectly organized college prom at the Tradewinds. Thus, the Senate functions as a group whose paramount objective is to promote the welfare of all at Cape Cod Community College.

DEAN'S LIST

DEAN'S LIST EXECUTIVE BOARD: J. Zimmerman, M. Dumican, M. Steele, M. Jones, D. Small.

Throughout their four semesters, students exhibiting exceptional scholastic standing are eligible for membership on the Dean's List. Under the leadership of our faculty advisor, Dr. Elinor Hanna, two banquets were held in honor of the students; one in March, 1962, and one in November, 1962.

By means of an executive board whose officers this year were Michelle Steele, Chairman, and Martha Dumican, Secretary-Treasurer; the Dean's List attainers were awarded pins for two or more semesters and certificates for one semester's academic achievement at an assembly in March.

These bright students must maintain a 3.0 average or better.

From the very beginning, when the first staff meeting was held on October 16, 1961, an adventurous spirit and unfailing interest was shown by the thirty-six very "green" students who volunteered their services.

After an ambitious and conscientious campaign was completed by the business staff, half the battle was won. Under the patient and most valuable direction of Mr. Admont Clark, it was decided, by the staff, to set the organization of the Student Senate as the date of the first edition of the Beacon. Thus, two new ventures at Cape Cod Community College went hand-in-hand, each doing its best to give its school a name.

With each edition that followed, past mistakes were corrected, new methods were learned, and perseverance was practiced. Surely, "success" was written between the lines of our College newspaper—the Beacon.

THE FORESEER

THE FORESEER had no tradition to uphold, instead we had a more difficult job—that of trying to establish tradition. The newly elected staff with its advisor, Mr. Peter Hartley, included Pamela Steen, Editor-in-Chief; John Bennett, Business Manager; Richard Barrett, Photography Editor; Suzanne Clowry, Copy Editor; Marion Van Duzer, Art Editor; and Virginia White, Typing.

It was the staff which spent its extra minutes in B6 foreseeing the problems that were just beginning. All original ideas and thoughts were subjected to various tests and results with the hope that what we felt was worthwhile might appear so to you and perhaps be used in a future edition.

The title we chose with discretion, weighing all angles. THE FORESEER was adapted because it represented Cape Cod Community College linked to a part of each student's future. The compass, appearing on the cover, came from the campus to assist each individual in foreseeing that future.

There were instances for each member of the staff that were hectic whether it was burning the midnight oil, writing; wearing shoe leather out collecting money; scheduling pictures with deadlines in mind; or drawing and redrawing. It is due to determination and perhaps pride that THE FORESEER now appears as a completed edition.

FI DELTA SI

Back in the spring of our freshman year, four men united to form a service club whose main goal would be a "better understanding between students" and "community service to all." Roger Lyonnais, Roger Chase, Joe Silva, and Lenny Gobeil joined forces, and through their efforts, Fi Delta Si was formed.

Our first initiation acquired nation-wide coverage when Lee Baptista and Jackie Medeiros were discovered twisting on Main Street. This boosted the morale of all the members, and helped the club to get off to an exciting start.

When the first elections came, Jeff Dillon, Jack Medeiros, Al Souza, and Jim Gagnon were elected officers.

Many successful activities were held, including numerous beneficial community projects.

In our second year of existence, new officers were chosen. They included Roger Chase, Jack Medeiros, Fred Hemmila, Dave Rumney, and Mike Bachman.

LIST OF MEMBERS:

Lenny Gobeil, Jerry Benham, Don Watters, Roger Chase, Roger Lyonnais, Dick Siddall, Jack Medeiros, Lee Baptista, John Storey, Jim Eldridge, Jeff Dillon, James Gagnon, Al Souza, Joseph Silva, Joseph Zimmerman, Robert Torrence, William Price, Stetson Hall, Paul Zinkus, Phil Perkins, Phil Brennan, Walter Walker, Fred Hemmila, Andrew Milk, Daniel Flynn, James Smith, Howard Wheldon, Robert Barboza, Thomas Bahr, Dave Rumney, Edward Wilhelms, David Levesque, Paul White, Alan Silva, Dennis Machado, Robert Richards, Doug Torrence.

CAPPAS

The eleven original members who organized this group, which is primarily a service club to the College and the community, chose as its name "Cappas." Dr. Elinor Hanna has acted as faculty sponsor for the girls since a charter was issued to the club in November, 1961.

Acting chairman chosen for the first half year was Barbara Barros. Under her supervision the club embarked on its initial project which was to help at the first Open House that the College held early in October of its first year. At this function, the girls served as hostesses and guides to the visitors. Thereafter, the club worked at various school functions and in January, following the election of Martha Dumican as chairman, the Cappas began volunteer work at the Cape Cod Hospital.

During mid-year examinations in January, 1962, the girls ran a concession in the Commons where they sold packaged lunches to the students. It was also one of the Cappas' services to assist the Mid-Cape Junior Chamber of Commerce on voting day in the spring of 1962.

At the time of the first formal initiation of new members, six additional girls were introduced into the club and a standard pin was designed and adopted as the club's membership pin.

At the final Director's Hour of the year, the club presented Dr. Hanna with a monetary gift to be used for the school's benefit.

In September Martha Dumican was chosen president; vice president, Terry Ann Rogers; treasurer, Arlene Teser, and secretary, Chris Crosby.

Membership rose to forty and the first phase of the new girls' initiation included a "Slave Auction." Twenty girls were sold to the highest bidders; over $50 was netted that day.

Following initiation members assisted the Hyannis Women's Club with their annual fall dance. At Christmas $25 was given by the club to Cape Cod Standard Times Neediest Family Fund. Other activities of a service nature continued and will continue to characterize the club.

MUG CLUB

The Mug Club was the first service club established at Cape Cod Community College. Cash Tandy was our first president, and other officers included Daniel Meservy, Vice President; Paul Bisbee, Secretary; and George Pierce, Treasurer.

The Mug Club consisted of 13 original members with 12 more being added as the 2nd semester began.

This first year of the Mug Club's history was spent in organizing and conceiving ideas that would benefit the school so that when we began our sophomore year, we would be starting off on the right foot with an established organization and with the thought of carrying out the ideas which we came up with. Some of these ideas did become a reality.

The Mug Club sponsored a dance which was called the Schelleigh Slop in honor of St. Patrick's Day. This dance was a huge success and was enjoyed by all.

As the Freshman Year closed out, the Mug Club elected new officers for the coming sophomore year. Ed Lefleur was elected president, Paul Bisbee was elected vice president, Ronnie Carlin was elected secretary and Brad Bryant was elected treasurer.

As the sophomore year started, Mug Club held an open house for the incoming freshmen who were interested in the Mug Club. Hell week was held from Nov. 13-16th with a dance ending all of the festivities for the week.

Now that everything was settled, we started to work establishing the selling of sandwiches in the commons to all the students. We also established a no interest loan fund which any student could take advantage of if they were really in need. Many other services were done for which the Mug Club has been credited. Members of the Mug Club are: Norman Lague, Carl Drake, Jerry Carriero, Brizz Ladner, Bob Martin, Bob Douglas, Ron Caron, Dave Omston, Ed Wooley, Paul Bisbee, Ronnie Carlin, Cash Tandy, Paul Parolski, Brad Bryant, Barry Foss, Robert McNutt, Lou Horvitz, John Bennett, Ed Ryba, Barry Johnson, Dan Ireland, and Tom Gayoski.

ROMANCE LANGUAGE CLUB

In every institution of higher learning, there exist a variety of clubs, ranging from those devoted to religious stimulation to those concerned with cultural endeavors.

A new club to Cape Cod Community College this year is the Romance Languages Club, which had its birth on November 27, 1962. On this date its first official meeting was held as a result of cooperative efforts of Miss Tilmanis and Lee Baptista. At this meeting, the officers for the year were elected, including Lee Baptista, President; Joe Zimmerman, Vice President; Joanne Buckley, Secretary; and Dave Warg, Treasurer.

The main purpose of this club is to offer to its members various forms of entertainment, such as movies and speakers having topics dealing with either France or Spain as their theme. This added information proves to be not only entertaining, but also quite educational, and serves as an effective device by which better understanding between entirely different cultures is created.

This is the first language club to be started at the college; and it is hoped that the Romance Languages Club has initiated a tradition at Cape Cod Community College.

YOUNG REPUBLICAN CLUB

The Community College Young Republican Club was organized early in September and was active throughout the fall campaign. Members of this club worked in co-operation with the town committee here in Hyannis and the Barnstable Young Republican Club. Some of us actively worked for individual candidates, especially A. G. Brooke and Congressman Keith. Election day found the Young Republicans engaged in precinct checking, distributing campaign material and transporting voters to the polls. We found ourselves joined by several Democrats from the college who aided our work and whose help was most appreciated. After the polls closed, George Carey and Mike Williams journeyed to Republican State Headquarters at the Sheraton Plaza via Congressman Keith's home in West Bridgewater. At State Headquarters they were guests of Miss Esther Tsiknas, State Committee Woman for the Cape. Two weeks after the election Congressman Keith treated the Cape Cod Community College Young Republican officers to a thank you luncheon at the Hyannis Inn.

NEWMAN CLUB

The Newman Movement is a National Catholic Group with Chapters on most secular and non-Catholic Campuses throughout the United States. It tries to instill greater knowledge and appreciation of the Catholic religion in college students by binding them together and making them more active and conscientious Christians.

The Newman Club at C.C.C.C. meets once a month on the third Tuesday at 12 noon within the school building. The officers for the '62-'63 year consisted of Peggy Carter, president; Paul Parolski, vice president; Barbara Lawrence, secretary; and Juliette Anjos, treasurer. The moderator is Father Dalzell from St. Francis Xavier Church of Hyannis, and our faculty advisor is Mr. Daniel O'Neill of New Bedford.

Drawing up a Constitution, sending two of the officers to a Leadership Weekend in Duxbury, Mass., having a guest speaker, Louis Cataldo from the County Identification Bureau, sponsoring a Valentine Dance, Lenten Devotions, and monthly Mass and breakfast have been some of the activities of the Newman Club at C.C.C.C.

ACTIVITIES

SPORTS

the league lead. A few of the boys even entered the New England Bowling Tournament in Providence, Rhode Island. Though they didn't win any prizes, the boys made a good showing. Individual trophies were hauled out at the end of the season.

This year found our enrollment augmented by incoming freshmen. Because of the size of the school, a football team was out of the question, but thanks to Mr. Tulis, football minded men were given a chance to show their skill in an intramural flag football league. This league was composed of six teams made up of eight to ten men each. The season ended with a team entirely composed of freshmen proving to be champions—undefeated champions we might add.

The climax of the season occurred when an all-star football team was selected to go to Brandeis University to play Brandeis' best. Our boys, behind the play of Clem Romano, Dick Brezinski, Dennis Machado, and Paul White, proved to be too strong for the Judges and vanquished them by the score of 34-6.

Under the leadership of Ronnie Carlin and Barry Johnson the bowling league was reactivated, and the sound of falling pins could be heard again on Monday afternoons.

This year the administration decided in favor of supporting varsity basketball and hockey teams. Under the coaching of Mr. Robert Manning, our basketball team, the Cape Cod Collegians, enjoyed a tremendous season compiling a fine record.

Sports have played a great part in our activities here at Cape Cod Community College. When we first entered college in September of 1961, we busily began to attend to our studies, but as time wore on, the more enthusiastic members of our class looked forward to the day when sports would become a part of our college life. In November the first step toward this realization was taken. An informal basketball squad was formed to play in the Cape Cod Basketball League.

Jim Eldredge, Bill Daniels, Dave Meehan, Barry Foss, Paul Parolski, Don Clement, Paul Bisbee, Dan Meservey, and Ron Carlin played for the so-called varsity that year. In the second semester of our first year the college engaged the services of Mr. John Tulis to serve as athletic director. The Armory across the street was rented and the following activities were set up: weight lifting, volleyball, table tennis, tether ball, tennis, basketball, and baseball. Boys and girls intra-mural basketball teams were formed, and many an exciting game was played afternoons.

Table tennis and basketball shooting contests were held with trophies going to the individual winners. As spring brought the melting snows, it also brought our national pastime. The college team, informal though it was, produced some fine baseball talent in the persons of Jackie Medieros, Paul Parolski, and Ed Sullivan. The team played against various local high school teams faring very well. For those people who didn't find baseball their fancy, the local bowling alleys provided enjoyment. Every Monday afternoon six teams would battle it out with the pins for

Led by the tremendous scoring and rebounding prowess of six foot, five inch center Paul White and the spirited play-making of Co-Captain Dick Brezinski, the Cape "five" rolled to an impressive five wins in a row. Helping White on the backboards were the two forwards Bill Carey and Roli Hicks. Bill, the other Co-Captain, possessed a fine jump shot and led the team downcourt on the fast break. Roli was the team's "policeman" scoring most of his points on rebounds from underneath. Helping Brezinski in the backcourt was Paul Parolski. Although only five foot, eight inches, Paul was a demon on defense, and his driving layups were a thing of beauty. Paul Seguin was the other forward. Only six foot, one inch, Paul did a fine job filling in for the big men. Ed Sullivan, Hank Hague, and Jim Smith provided the team with reserve strength and gave a good account of themselves whenever they were called upon. The team had a rough schedule playing Burdett Junior College, Bentley, Emerson, and Quincy Junior College to name a few.

On the ice the College didn't fare as well, but the hockey team skated hard and fast and with a few breaks would have had a winning season. Under the coaching of Mr. John Baldasaro and Mr. Jerry Pass the team ended the season with a fair record.

Leading the Cape sextet on the ice was defenseman, Barry Crawford. Many a rush was broken up by Barry's fine play. Teaming up with Barry on defense was the fierce checking Peter Nese, the hard shooting Craig Hopkins, and the hard skating John Storey. Centering the College team were Co-Captains John Bennett and Ken Rosberg. Practically all of the team's goals were set up by these boys' fine skating. Playing right wing were Jerry Benham and Jeff Dillon. Both of these players possessed fine shots and given a chance could hit the net from any angle. The left wings were Paul Zinkus and Glenn Peters. Both of these players were real hustlers and could always be seen scrapping all over the ice. Robert McNutt filled in as a defenseman and a wing showing great versatility in both positions. Splitting goalie duties were Donald Watters and Dave Lewis, both showing great skill in the goal.

We, the first class to graduate from Cape Cod Community College, will look back on these two years in later life and remember the enjoyment we had in participating, either as a member or a spectator, in the sports activities here at 4 C's.

AN ANCIENT HOSTELRY

By the late
 Clara Jane Hallett

The original building of what is now the Hyannis Inn was constructed in the early 1860's by Daniel Crowell for his residence. It was a large, long white house with heavy white trimmings and green blinds. A shoe store occupied the first floor and here Mr. Crowell conducted a retail shoe business until his death in 1888. After his death various others conducted the same kind of business at this location for a number of years. Among these were George F. Kelley, William H. Bartlett, and Captain Benjamin D. Baxter.

When the First National Bank of Hyannis (now the Hyannis Trust Company) was chartered in 1865, rooms over the store were fitted up for the use of the bank. These rooms of the bank were used also as a meeting place for discussion of local affairs. This remained the home of the bank until it moved across the street in 1895 to a new building, — the building now occupied by Bradley's Cleaners.

The Crowell residence was first used commercially by the late Mrs. Betsy R. Wyman, who conducted a Boarding House. The building was later acquired by William E. Cox, who fitted it up as a hotel and named it the HYANNIS INN. Mr. Cox made a number of alterations and improvements. Through Mr. Henry Haugh and other owners further improvements have been made, so that today it is a very comfortable hotel under the ownership and management of Mr. James F. Pendergast, who purchased it in 1946.
